ORDER

Adopted: December 19, 2005

Released: December 19, 2005

By the Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau:

1. In this Order, pursuant to section 10(c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act),<sup>1</sup> we extend by 90 days the date by which the petition requesting forbearance, filed by the Verizon telephone companies (“Verizon”), shall be deemed granted in the absence of a Commission decision that the petition fails to meet the standards for forbearance under section 10(a) of the Act.<sup>2</sup>

2. On December 20, 2004, Verizon filed a petition requesting that the Commission forbear from applying Title II of the Act and the Computer Inquiry requirements<sup>3</sup> for “all broadband services” that Verizon “does or may offer.”<sup>4</sup> It also requests that the Commission forbear from applying these requirements for broadband services provided by other incumbent local telephone companies.<sup>5</sup> Section 10(c) of the Act states that a petition for forbearance shall be deemed granted if the Commission does not deny the petition for failure to meet the requirements for forbearance under subsection (a) within one year after the Commission receives it, unless the Commission extends the one-year period.<sup>6</sup> The Commission

<sup>4</sup> Petition of the Verizon Telephone Companies For Forbearance, WC Docket No. 04-440, at 2 (filed Dec. 20, 2004) (Petition). Verizon states that its petition requests the same relief as that requested in a forbearance petition for broadband services filed by BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. on October 27, 2004. Petition at 1-23 (citing Petition of BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. For Forbearance Under 47 U.S.C. § 160(c) From Application of Computer Inquiry and Title II Common-Carriage Requirements, WC Docket No. 04-405 (filed Oct. 27, 2004) (BellSouth Forbearance Petition)). BellSouth defined “broadband” as “technologies that are capable of providing 200 Kbps (kilobits per second) in both directions,” and stated that these services “include high-speed Internet access provided using DSL technology.” BellSouth Forbearance Petition at 1, n.2 (emphasis added). BellSouth subsequently withdrew its petition. Letter from Bennet L. Ross, General Counsel-D.C., BellSouth, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 04-405, at 1 (filed Oct. 26, 2005) (BellSouth Withdrawal Letter).

may extend the initial one-year period by an additional 90 days if the Commission finds that an extension is necessary to meet the requirements of subsection 10(a).<sup>7</sup>

3. The petition under review raises significant questions regarding whether forbearance from application of Title II of the Act and Computer Inquiry requirements to all broadband services that Verizon may offer meets the statutory requirements set forth in section 10(a). The Bureau thus finds that a 90-day extension is warranted under section 10(c).

4. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 10 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 160, and authority delegated under sections 0.91 and 0.291 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91 and 0.291,<sup>8</sup> the date on which the petition seeking forbearance filed by Verizon shall be deemed granted, in the absence of a Commission denial of the petition for failure to meet the statutory standards for forbearance, is extended to March 19, 2006.
